

Australian Arab Business Council

AUGUST MONTHLY DINNER

Strategic partners in your business

Mr. James Kouzinas

Associate Director, Foreign Exchange
National Australia Bank

James joined the NAB in 2007 and since then, has held a variety of roles ranging from Business Banking Manager and Impaired Asset Manager, to his current role as Associate Director FX, which he commenced in October 2012. These varied roles have exposed James to a wide array of customers and provided him with a solid foundation and understanding of the banking and financial services sector.

James' expertise is firmly embedded in FX markets, with his current role seeing him provide tailored FX risk management solutions for customers who have FX exposures in excess of $300M pa.

James holds a Master of Business Administration (Business) and Bachelor of Commerce (Public Relations) from Curtin University, as well as a Diploma of Financial Services in FX and Financial markets.
